10. Raymond de Drée (FR)	2:16	2222/280	7,93	11,76	109

400 Points without equal innings. Round robin.

Tournament average: 11,33 (29753 / 2624)

For once, there were no play-offs. The ranking from place 3 to 7 was done by average.

This tournament was called the European Championship in the Dutch magazine "Het Biljart" of February 1913 (despite the participation of J. Ferdinand Poggenburg from the USA). The background of this refusal of a rating as world championship were disputes between the Dutch and the French federation.
