400 Points without equal innings. Round robin.

Tournament average: 13,62 (18397 / 1582)

Players from the competing "Fédération Française du Billard" also participated in this championship.

On 1.12.1913, with the foundation of the "Fédération Française des Amateurs de Billard" (FFAB), the FSFAB and FFB were united. This ended the existence of two parallel world championships. The foundation of a world federation was planned, but the First World War put an end to these plans.
