The American Larry Johnson, also known as "Boston Shorty" because of his short stature, was known for his "big mouth". Before the start of the match against Raymond Ceulemans, he annoyed the eventual title holder with a "betting proposition" and the question of who would come when he was done with the Belgian. 60:10 in 26 innings Ceulemans finished him off.

The world champion also made short work of Johnson's compatriot Frank Torres, 60:14 in 27 innings, although the latter did not trouble him.
