Details

The qualification was played in a double knock-out system. Starting with 8 groups of 8 players each. The 32 winners reached the winners' round of the second qualifying stage, the 32 losers the losers' round of the second qualifying stage. These two rounds were played in 4 groups of 8 players, where the 16 winners in the winners' round went straight through to the finals, while the 16 losers met the 16 winners of the losers' round. Here there were again 4 groups of 8 players, and the 16 winners of this round also qualified for the finals.
