Dieter Müller won his third title in San Sebastian, enjoying an unlikely run of luck in terms of the strength of his opponents, who were at their absolute worst against him. His opponents were Antoine Schrauwen 110 in 14 (7.85), Siegfried Spielmann 111 in 6 (18.50), Hans Vultink 166 in 14 (11.85), José Gálvez 207 in 10 (20.70), Ludo Dielis 70 in 10 (7.00), Franz Stenzel 138 in 11 (12.54), and Alejandro Munoz 54 in 6 (9.00). This list is by no means intended to diminish Müller's performance, for he would not have been able to break his opponents down so thoroughly if he not had such a reputation as a winning player.
